Who here remembers the Golden Age of the forums?

hydrafalling2

that time when Lissie and Crest and Genny and the others were the popular forumers where great fanfics were everywhere where everyone was nice and inclusive

i think most most of the older forumers are gone, replaced with newer ones who don't remember the legendary Golden Age forumers, and I'm just wondering if there's anyone else who remembers that time

I wish I was around then, but you have to remember that people grow up and move on and new people find this place and join. Some of the newer people are now really popular, like Riri. Anyways, the Golden Age sounds great.

I wish I knew that age but I did see Genny pop in every now and then, but that's not the same. I mean everyone now is awesome but the Golden Age sounds much nicer.

Yes, I do remember them, before I left for 2 years. That time was amazing. Anyone here remember War of the MistWings? That was the first roleplay I ever joined in 2015, I doubt anyone here knows about it.

i remember the "golden age" but i dont like calling it that, it could be the golden age to you but the forums are still pretty good and referring to the good things as if they are gone and won't come back is just keeping them away - embracing whatever comes at you here and hopping in. things dont need to be perfect to be good

Yeah... I made my first account when there were only, like, 500 pages on the WoFMB but I've come and gone since then. I just remember a lot of successful RPs and not as many (or any) FWRPs. When I came back like a year later it wasn't near as great as I remembered it but I'm not going to lie since then I've started to like the way the forums are now...
